definite period, seemed to be considered in Congress. The demand for Ohio fleeces continues to be good. Sales at half blood are quoted from 25a26 cents. A further demand for Missouri bright wools has been noted. One lot of 125,000 pounds of half, three-eighths and quarter bloods is reported on private terms.

Texas wools are moving around 52a53.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON, August 1.—Trading in the wool market has been checked considerably by uncertainty regarding tariff legislation at Washington. In many quarters the disposition has been to clean up all new wools to the highest bidder. In this way the margin of profit has been weak: native, 2.50a4.00; western, 2.60a. of administration granted to Richard E. Miller; bond, $100; attorney, Frank Stetson.
